BEACH GUIDE

H amptons beaches are a premier destination for locals, weekenders and summer visitors from all over the world. Who wouldn't want to spend a day soaking up the sun and sipping rosé on one of the most popular and most pristine beaches on the East Coast? With so many to choose from, though, you'll need a guide to help you find the one that suits your tastes best. Below, you'll find a list of Hamptons beaches with addresses, amenities and parking permit requirements. Have fun, stay safe and be courteous to your fellow beachgoers!

EAST HAMPTON TOWN

The Town of East Hampton's beaches span Wainscott to Montauk and are some of the most gorgeous and popular on Long Island. Beach parking permits are required 24/7 year-round and may be obtained from the Town Clerk's office. The 2021 fees for non-resident beach permits are as follows: $500 for parking, $400 for driving on the sand and $150 for launching off boat ramps. Resident parking and drive-on permits are free. Single-day parking at Kirk Park Beach is $50, and there is also a free parking area. East Hampton Village permits do not work on East Hampton Town's

EAST HAMPTON VILLAGE

The Village of East Hampton has five beaches that are well-loved by locals and visitors alike. The most popular of all is Main Beach, which Dr. Beach named the No. 1 beach in the America in 2013. Summer beach parking permits are free to residents and $500 for non-residents. Monthly parking permits are now available online only for $300 a month. No daily passes are available this year. Parking permits are required through September 15. Visit easthamptonvillage.org for updates and more information.

SOUTHAMPTON TOWN

The Town of Southampton is packed with beaches, both grand and charming. Flying Point and Ponquogue Beach offer concessions, restrooms and more, while Cold Spring Road and Peters Pond Lane are preferred destinations for those who value solace over amenities. All beaches are open daily July-Labor Day, though not all have lifeguards. Beach parking permits are available to residents for $40 per vehicle and to non-resident seasonal renters for $400 per vehicle. Sag Harbor residents who live on the East Hampton Town side of the village can acquire season parking permits to Foster Memorial Long Beach only for $40. Day passes are available on weekdays at Tiana Beach, Ponquogue Beach, Mecox Beach, Sagg Main Beach (not Mondays) and Foster Memorial Long Beach. No Southampton Town parking passes work at Southampton Village beaches and vice versa.

Guild Hall's

90th Anniversary Celebration Features Poetry, Performance and Fine Art

I uild Hall is celebrating a massive milestone this year as it turns 90 years old. This Hamptons institution features performing arts, fine art and more. The innovative and exciting Play in the Garden outdoor theater series offers an intimate, high-end theater experience, while stunning art exhibitions in the gallery promise an unforgettable

The festivities begin with a virtual poetry performance, Reawakenings, on May 23 featuring Salman Rushdie, Susan Lucci, Karen Akers, Chris Sarandon and many others.

In June, Guild Hall will begin its outdoor Play in the Garden theater series with live performances at 8 p.m., for a limited audience/Lawn Circle seats (to also be livestreamed/made available online). The series will showcase works of Edward Albee, Kurt Vonnegut, Wendy Wasserstein and Tom Wolfe (Albee was Artistic Director of Guild Hall's theater in the 1970s, Vonnegut, Wasserstein and Wolfe were also involved with Guild Hall during their careers and all four are members of Guild Hall's Academy of the Arts). The series starts with a Weekend of Wasserstein, featuring two works from the celebrated playwright, from June 4-5. June 11 will be a staged reading of Happy Birthday, Wanda June by Kurt Vonnegut, the storied author's first play from 1970 that was later adapted into a film in 1971. The series will continue with Michael Urie and his partner, Ryan Spahn, starring in Albee's seminal classic The Zoo Story from July 8-11 and A Night with the Wolfe on July 23 celebrating Tom Wolfe. Five-time Tony winner and Academy of the Arts member Susan Stroman will direct three unique live theater events August 27-29, and Labor Day weekend, September 3-4, will be the premiere of new play Crisis in Queens by Joy Behar. On September 16-18, there's Temptation and

GUILD HALL IN EAST HAMPTON

Other Tales: An Evening of One-Acts written and directed by Lyle Kessler, starring Richard Kind, Raye and Sawyer Spielberg, and Margaret Ladd.

Other events include an outdoor film screening series featuring films inspired by or directly connected to the artists and exhibitions on view, including Life of Pi (June 12; Alexis Rockman provided the inspirational drawings for director Ang Lee), 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea (July 10) and Johnny Mnemonic (August 14; directed by Robert Longo whose exhibition begins the week before); the return of the popular Stirring the Pot culinary series with Florence Fabricant; the 75th annual Clothesline Art Sale on July 24 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m.; a star-studded Summer Gala on August 6 and a 90th Birthday Celebration on August 19. The summer will also feature fun events for kids and families including Saturday Family Workshops from June 12-July 10 and August 14-September 4 at noon; a variety of KidFEST events July 7, July 21, August 11 and September 1; Burn the Stage: Teen Open Mic Night on May 29 and June 18 at 8 p.m. with Guild Hall Teen Arts Council; and the GATHER series July 16-July 19 featuring conversations led by Black and Indigenous change-makers.

With more than 40 new paintings and works on paper, Alexis Rockman: Shipwrecks (June 12-July 26), curated by Guild Hall's Executive Director Andrea Grover, will look at the world's waterways as a network by which all of world history has traveled. Robert Longo: A House Divided (August 7-October 17) is a special, two-part exhibition featuring images that represent both how America was once perceived-as a country at the peak of its power and influence—and images that echo its current state of chaos and conflict. And starting on October 30, Guild Hall will launch its 90th Selections from the Permanent

Artists & Writers Game Is Back

BY DAN RATTINER

an's Papers is proud to sponsor the 72nd annual Artist & Writers Charity Softball Game, which is scheduled to return to Herrick Park on Newtown Lane in East Hampton at 3 p.m. on Saturday, August 21. Besides baseball that day, there will be food and drinks, a place for spectators, money raised for good causes and a whole lot of fun for all packed into nine innings.

This is the oldest annual softball game in the Hamptons. The first game was played in 1948 in the backyard of the home of artist Wilfrid Zogbaum in Springs, and it was attended by some of the greatest artists of the day. They included Franz Kline, Philip Pavia, Jackson Pollock, Willem de Kooning and Joan Mitchell. It was a softball game without anyone keeping score. And it did include a small grapefruit painted white, which was swapped out with the real softball and pitched to de Kooning, who with a mighty swing, splattered it all over himself.

Paintings by some of these artists fetch as much as $100 million today when they go up for sale. Springs, at that time, had become the center of Abstract Expressionism, which took the art world by storm in the late 1940s and 1950s. The artists said the north light in Springs was unmatched for what they wanted to do.

The game was moved to a sandlot baseball diamond in Herrick Park in East Hampton in the 1960s. It has been played every year in that same spot since.

Over the years, a wide variety of artists, writers, billionaires, actors, actresses, directors and producers have played. There have also been politicians who have played, including presidential candidates and future presidents of the United States.

Attending, umpiring or playing over the years have been Paul Simon, Pele, Carl Ichan, Alec Baldwin, Bianca Jagger, Regis Philbin, Chevy Chase, Christie Brinkley, Mort Zuckerman, Laurie Singer, Ken Auletta, Bill Clinton, Alan Alda, Mike Lupica, Roy Scheider, Eli Wallach, James Jones, Rudolph Guiliani, Gwen Verdon, George Plimpton, Ben Bradlee, Matthew Broderick, Peter Jennings, Abbie Hoffman and Yogi Berra. Heavyweight challenger Jerry Cooney played for a couple of years. All have or have had places out here.

I have many memories of this game. I played for the Writers beginning in 1968, then got traded to the Artists in 1973. I think my lifetime record as a player was three singles in 14 at bats.

Beginning around 1975, I began umpiring the game calling balls and strikes from behind the mound along with some of the "guest" umpires and other celebrities. I continue to do so.

Here are some memories I have, in no particular order.

The great songwriter and performer Paul Simon went back and back in deep left center field, leaped up and reaching over the snow fence, caught a towering drive, turning a home run into an out one year. He also fell to the ground, having first landed as he came down on the wooden snow fence that serves as the wall out there. People ran out there. Fortunately, he was only slightly injured. What a catch.

I once called Christie Brinkley out on strikes. She missed three, so we gave her a fourth and a fifth. Everybody wanted to see her run to first, but it was not to be that year.

One of the great heroes in American politics in the 1960s was Eugene Mc-Carthy, the Wisconsin Senator, who challenged and then nearly beat sitting President Lyndon Johnson in a primary as he began his campaign to run for re-election. Johnson changed his mind about running after that encounter with McCarthy. He had been largely responsible for the disastrous Vietnam War. Four years later, Eugene McCarthy, in 1972 played first base for the writers.

ALEC BALDWIN CIRCA 2000

He was an editor at Random House at that time. He split the back of his shorts sliding into second in the fifth inning. He played the rest of the game that way.

Abbie Hoffman, the famous hippie, played in the game in 1972. He lived in these parts in those days. He took a ball and a strike and then "stole" first, then refused to leave. He got ejected from the game, tipping his hat as he jogged off.

For many years in the 1990s and 2000s, a great pitching duel took place every year between actor Roy Scheider for the Artists and billionaire Mort Zuckerman for the Writers. I called balls and strikes behind both of them. Zuckerman was fiery and short tempered. Scheider just had a lot of fun. Both were very good Actor Eli Wallach, standing ramrod straight in tennis whites at the age of 88, perfectly called balls and strikes for four innings without an error.

There have been plenty of umpire mistakes over the years. Probably the most difficult for me was one year when George Plimpton, playing first base, wandered over into the crowd sitting on the grass along the first base line to catch a high foul ball. As it came down, actress Lori Singer, who was playing for the Artists, stood up and knocked the ball away from him, leading to my calling it a foul ball, which I soon reversed to an out. That call cleared the sidelines in protest. But I stood my ground.

One year I very much enjoyed calling billionaire Carl Ichan out on strikes. He took the third one with the bat still on his shoulder. An excellent pitch it was,

We've played through rain squalls and blazing heat. One game went 17 innings. A number of the games have been featured in The New York Times and Time magazine.

Sportscasters narrate the game from a table behind the backstop. Banter goes back and forth. My favorite commentators over the years were PR genius John Scanlon and TV executive Sir Howard Stringer.

Here's one exchange that came over the loudspeaker one year as writer Walter Isaacson came up to the plate.

Scanlon: Isaacson is much taller than he looks Stringer: Winner of four Pulitzer Prizes.

Scanlon: Author of Spinoza's Ethics. Stringer: His works will be read long after Shakespeare's are forgotten.

Scanlon: But not before.

After most of those games, all the players and umpires would walk up through the park to the Laundry Restaurant for beers on the patio and the announcement by Lief Hope of the player of the game.

One year, the announced winner had gone straight home without stopping at the restaurant. Lief had a monstrously large bottle of white wine, called a Jeroboam, for him. But since he wasn't there, Lief gave it to me. I never even knew what a Jeroboam was. And it was quite a feat to get it out to my car.

Mark your calendar and come to the game. Who knows? Interested in getting to play? We have slots open. Write why to drattiner2@gmail.com.

The Clubhouse

174 Daniels Hole Road, East Hampton 531-537-2695 ehitclubhouse.com The Clubhouse, opened at East Hampton Indoor Tennis in 2018, offers a 10-lane bowling alley, three indoor bocce courts, an 18-hole mini golf course, more than 40 arcade games and two pool tables, making this East Hampton hotspot perfect for you and your kids. The complex also has a full restaurant (with drinks!) featuring an inexpensive kids' menu with surefire hits like pasta, chicken fingers, burgers, hot dogs and ice cream. Check The Clubhouse website for weekly deals and specials on gaming and bowling.

South Fork Natural History Museum

377 Bridgehampton-Sag Harbor Turnpike, Bridgehampton 631-537-9735, sofo.org Founded in 1988, the South Fork Natural History Museum ("SoFo") is a fun and informative nature center for kids and adults alike. Inside the museum, you'll find specially curated exhibits featuring re-created animal habitats; murals of forests, ponds and ocean landscapes; a marine touch tank where visitors can hold sea stars, crabs, urchins and whelks in the water; terrariums; aquariums and more. Outside, check out SoFo's Native Butterfly Garden, Native Wildflower Garden, Educational Pond, Purple Martin bird nesting ground site and the six-mile Long Pond Greenbelt trail system. In 2018, SoFo started the Shark Research and Education Program to spread awareness about the importance of sharks in New York's marine ecosystem.

Children's Museum of the East End

376 Bridgehampton-Sag Harbor Turnpike, Bridgwehampton 631-537-8250, cmee.org Just across the road from SoFo, the Children's Museum of the East End (CMEE) has operated at its current home since 2005. An educational center bursting with fun and whimsy, CMEE sees almost 75,000 visitors each year. From the moment your child steps through the doors, they will be enchanted by the sense of adventure and wonder that permeates the museum. Exploring the museum, kids will find tons of activities, like learning how a firetruck works, discovering a magical tree house and more. The museum is also home to a science-driven mini golf course. CMEE has daily admission, as well as several membership options for families who can't get enough of this fun learning center.

Northrop Grumman Carousel at Jess Owen Carousel House

115 Front Street, Greenport 631-477-2200 villageofgreenport.org One of Greenport's most charming and renowned attractions, the 100-year-old antique carousel in Mitchell Park was originally donated by the Grumman Aircraft Corp. A wooden carousel built by the iconic Herschell Spillman Company, this beauty has three rows of horses and two chariots. The carousel, housed inside an attractive glass dome, is open for rides all week throughout the summer months. The carousel house is named for Jesse Owen, the ride's first operator in Greenport. Try the popular ring game, known for inspiring the term "grab the brass ring," to win a free ride.

Long Island Aquarium

431 East Main Street, Riverhead 631-208-9200 longislandaquarium.com The Long Island Aquarium, styled after the fabled lost city of Atlantis, boasts a huge all-living coral reef display, a 120,000-gallon shark tank, sea lion shows, African penguins, marmosets and tons of exhibits filled to the brim with living creatures for your kids to marvel at. Indoor exhibits include an Amazon rainforest, American alligators, fish of all kinds and more. Outside, you'll see reptiles, a koi pond and a home for two otters. Fun fact: Otters are rarely found on Long Island.

The All Star

96 Main Road, Riverhead 631-998-3565 theallstar.com The All Star has a snazzy bowling alley, cool arcade and top-notch restaurant. A great place to take the kids for a day of indoor shenanigans, have lunch at Smitty's All American Grill, bowl all afternoon and visit the arcade, which has a mix of classic games and more modern, high-tech fare. The attractions use e-tickets, which are saved on a game card so you won't have to worry about counting tons of prize tickets after your kids rock the Skee-Ball machine.

Get your tee time at these public courses and get ready to hit the links.

HAMPTONS

Montauk Downs State Park

50 South Fairview Avenue, Montauk. 631-668-3781, parks.ny.gov/parks/montaukdowns

This Robert Trent Jones-designed,
18-hole course is known for its unpredictable difficulty, with wind currents from the ocean and bay changing conditions every day. The park also offers a driving range, six championship tennis courts, swimming pool and wading pool for children, catering facility, clubhouse and grill room. Parking requires a New York State Empire Pass, which is $80. Swimming season begins June 26 and costs $7 for adults and $5 for kids. Access to the tennis courts is $30 per hour.

Poxabogue Golf Center

3556 Montauk Highway, Sagaponack. 631-537-0025, poxgolf.com

Sag Harbor State Golf Course

Barcelona Point, Sag Harbor.
631-725-2503, parks.ny.gov/golf/17
This nine-hole golf facility occupies nearly 50 acres of the 341-acre parcel known as the Barcelona Neck Natural Resources Management Area. Situated on a peninsula and surrounded by woodlands, bluffs and wetlands, this delightful golf course is so nice, you'll want to play it twice. The fee to access the green is $22 on weekdays and $33

NORTH FORK

on weekends and holidays.

Cedars Golf Club

305 Cases Lane, Cutchogue. 631-734-6363, cedarsgolfclub.com Designed by Russel Case, this ninehole, par three course features four ponds creating significant water hazards for an added bit of challenge. Advance tee times are strongly recommended, and walk-ins will only be accommodated if a tee time is still available. Reservations are $15 per golfer with a maximum of four golfers per party.

Cherry Creek Golf Links

900 Reeves Avenue, Riverhead. 631-369-6500, cherrycreeklinks.com

631-369-6500, cherrycreeklinks.com This course is famous for its signature hole 18, a challenging 644-yard par six with deep gullies on the left, an uphill climb and sand traps near the putting green. Tee time reservations are $25-$55 to walk 18 holes ($45-$75 to ride) and $20-$25 to walk nine holes ($30-$35 to ride). When you finish the challenging 18th hole, head over to The 19th Hole Restaurant onpremises for breakfast or lunch.

The Woods at Cherry Creek

967 Reeves Avenue, Riverhead. 631-506-0777, thewoodsatcherrycreek.com

Considered a shot-makers delight, this par-71 course is an alluring track consisting of rolling tree-lined fairways, winding doglegs and seven out of 18 holes overlooking beautifully sculptured ponds. Tee time reservations are $25-$55 to walk 18 holes ($45-$75 to ride) and $20-$25 to walk nine holes ($30-$35 to ride). Famished golfers should check out the enticing lunch and dinner menus at the Stonewalls Restaurant after their game.

Indian Island Country Club 661 Riverside Drive, Riverhead.

631-727-7776, indianislandcountryclub.com

This 18-hole Suffolk County golf course, designed by William F. Mitchell ASGCA, features 6,506 yards of golf and gorgeous views of Peconic River. Like other municipal courses, Indian Island is striving to stagger tee times, prevent golf cart use, limit face-to-face transactions and clean facilities frequently. Reservations can be made online through the county Green Key system.

Sandy Pond Golf Course

1495 Roanoke Avenue, Riverhead. 631-727-0909, facebook.com/ sandypondgolf

The nine-hole Sandy Pond course offers par three holes perfect for beginners and experts practicing their short game. The laid-back course comprises 1,070 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 27.

Island's End Golf Club

5025 Route 25, Greenport.
631-477-0777, islandsendgolf.com
Test your accuracy with fairways, water hazards, sand traps and more to challenge you and improve your game. Bay and Long Island Sound views are plentiful at this bucolic 18-hole course, adding to its undeniable North Fork charm. Tee time reservations can be made online for $55.

Shelter Island Country Club

26 Sunnyside Avenue, Shelter Island Heights. 631-749-5404, shelterislandcc.org

The nine-hole course, known locally as "Goat Hill," covers 2,512 yards of widely varying terrain and has seven blind holes to keep things interesting. The course was established in 1901 and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Golfers you get puckish after their short game can grab lunch or dinner at The Flying Goat Restaurant.

13 Great Waterfront Restaurants on the # East End

The two main attractions on the East End are the region's world-famous beaches and award-winning restaurants. Here are a baker's dozen of locales that allow for both to be enjoyed simultaneously.

Restaurateur Adam Lovett created A Lure to serve fresh fish and seafood in the heart of Long Island wine country. Now, boaters, visitors and locals from across the East End flock to the Port of Egypt Marine for this oysteria's weekly prix fixes and happy hour.

A Guide to East End Breweries, Distilleries and Cideries

Thirsty for something besides what vineyards on the North Fork Wine Trail are pouring? The region's cupeth overflows with a mouth-watering variety of locally made beers, hard ciders, and craft spirits. Now that's something to celebrate this summer. Cheers!

Eastern Front Brewing Co. 13100 Main Road, Mattituck. facebook.com/easternfrontbrewing

A stone's throw from downtown Love Lane, this rustic tasting room pours such popular brews as North Shore Irish Red Ale, Super Sexy Imperial Stout and Fragile Like a Bomb IPA with guava and orange blossom honey.

Greenport Harbor Brewing Co. 234 Carpenter Street, Greenport. 42155 Main Road, Peconic. greenportharborbrewing.com

This dynamic brewery located in a converted firehouse has been such a success that it opened a second location in Peconic featuring a tasting room just like its hometown brewery, specializing in a variety of ales, seasonal favorites-fall is not complete without Leaf Pile-porters and IPAs.

Jamesport Farm Brewery 5873 Sound Avenue, Riverhead. jfbrewery.com

These enterprising hops farmers are leading the way in using local ingredients in their craft brews. Co-founders Melissa and Anthony Caggiano operate the 43-acre farm that's also home to their wholesale nursery, Plant Connection, and their hop farm, L.I. Hops.

Long Ireland Beer Co.

817 Pulaski Street, Riverhead. longirelandbrewing.comLong

Long Ireland Beer Co., located in an East End neighborhood known as Polish Town, sounds like an international brewing operation, but the owners are as fiercely local as can be.

Montauk Brewing Co.

62 South Erie Avenue, Montauk. montaukbrewingco.com

The do-it-yourself attitude that the easternmost community on Long Island is known for flows from the owners of the Montauk Brewing Co. like brew from the taps in their rustic tasting room that's arguably one of the most scenic local craft breweries on LI, with an outdoor seating area that offers views of Fort Pond.

North Fork Brewing Co. 24 East 2nd Street Riverhead. northforkbrewingco.com

With 12 taps in total on site, the three stainless steel vessel system makes 10 barrels of beer at a time and multiple fermenters allow for a consistent rotation of flavor variety.

Peconic County Brewing 221 East Main Street, Riverhead. peconiccountybrewing.com

Drawing its name from a longstalled proposal for the East End to secede from Suffolk County, Peconic County Brewing is among the newest craft breweries to open in Riverhead.

Shelter Island Craft Brewery 55 North Ferry Road, Shelter Island. shelterislandcraftbrewery.com

Among the local ingredients this New York State-certified farm brewery reportedly uses are honey, apples, beach plums and scallops from Shelter Island, plus spices grown in the brewmaster's garden.

Tradewinds Brewing Company 70 West Main Street, Riverhead. tradewindsbrewing.com

This new brewery was founded by a pioneer of craft brewing on LI, Duffy Griffiths, who was the original head brewer at John Harvard's brewpub in Lake Grove before launching Crooked Ladder Brewing Company six years ago and moving over to Greenport Harbor Brewing. His new venture took over Crooked Ladder's old space.

Twin Fork Beer Co.

807 Raynor Avenue, Calverton. twinforkbeer.com

This brewery's name references more than just its location. It's also a wink to the owners, Dan and Peter Chekijian, identical twins who founded the brewery in 2014. Their tap handles, found at restaurants across LI and NYC, is a musical tuning fork—a tip of the hat to their father, a classical pianist.

übergeek Brewing Company 400 Hallett Avenue, Riverhead. uberaeekbrewina.com

With a loyal fanbase and many connections both up-island and on the East End, the newest brewery in River-head took over the space of Moustache Brewing Co.'s old digs.

Westhampton Beach Brewing Co. 220 Rogers Way, Suite I, Westhampton Beach. whbbrewingco.com

This brewery has a beautiful indoor/ outdoor tasting room where you can sip a pint, observe the in-house brewing operations and live its motto: "Every Day's a Beach Day!"

Riverhead Cider House 2711 Sound Avenue, Calverton. riverheadcider.com

Flavors include Razzmatazz, Benjamin's Best and Honey Crisp Bolt. Riverhead currently has more than 12 flavors on tap, all made from New York-grown apples with no added sugars. Local beer, wines and apple cider doughnuts are also available.

Woodside Orchards

729 Route, Aqueboque, woodsideorchards.com

The North Fork hard cidery has variations such as sweet, apple lemon and cinnamon apple-they've also had apple ginger, apple raspberry and apple pumpkin in the past. All that's in addition to apple wine, apple pie and other apple goods they sell.

Wöllfer Estate

139 Sagg Road, Sagaponack. wolffer.com

Make a reservation for wine or cider tasting at this famed vineyard in the Hamptons. Wöllfer offers all wine and cider by the glass, bottle or to-go. Ciders, including dry rosé, red and dry white are available in 12 packs.

Greenport Distilling & Bar 211 Carpenter Street, Greenport. greenportdistillery.com

Patrons can select from a number of wines and spirits produced by the owners themselves in the distillery's tasting room. Greenport distills spiced rum, bourbon, vodka, gin, grappa, apple brandy and amaros.

Long Island Spirits

2182 Sound Avenue, Baiting Hollow. lispirits.com

Sip spirits in a tasting room patio while grooving to live music and grabbing eats from the food truck. This distillery's award-winning spirits come in rich tastes and innovative flavors. LiV distills its own vodkas and sorbetta liqueurs as well as Deep Wells Dry Gin, Rough Riders Whiskey and Pine Barrens whiskey and gin.

Montauk Distilling Co. 24 East 2nd Street, Riverhead. montaukdistillingco.com

Take a jaunt to this distillery's tasting room, where guests can choose from a selection of award-winning bottles of spirits such as Bellamy Spiced Rum and Black Sail Rum. In addition to new spirits like Navy Strength Rum and Tunney Bourbon Whiskey, Montauk plans to offer Modico Vodka Hard Seltzer this summer.

Sagaponack Farm Distillery 369 Sagg Road, Sagaponack. sagaponackfarmdistillery.com

This farm is known for its critically acclaimed potato vodka, wheat vodka, rhubarb liquour and more. One of Sagaponack's classics, Empire Rye Whiskey, made from 100% estategrown rve and barley, has been produced at the distillery three years in a row. The distillery has an outdoor tasting room, as well as an indoor one with limited seating.

Twin Stills Moonshine 5506 Sound Avenue, Riverhead. liooldtymer.com

Rated among the finest wines and spirits in New York, give this moonshine maker a shot at a tasting. Flavors include corn whiskey, maple pecan, mixed berry, coffee and more. Check out the website's calendar for live music and events.

This is bestreviews.com's top cooler for 2021. "Tough, rugged and perfect for camping, tailgating and picnicking." Made with three inches of PermaFrost Insulation and an extra thick FatWall design, the cooler can provide extended ice retention and keep your drinks and food cold for an extended period of time. All Tundra coolers feature a T-Rex Lid Latch constructed of heavy-duty rubber. This ice chest has plenty of room, holding a limit of redfish or your prized brisket.

LIDC Loan Officen

Dear Long Island Business Owner,

Established in 1980, LIDC's vision has always been a Long Island in which owners of business and industry have access to low-cost business capital and credible financial resources needed to grow, develop and increase their business capacity to succeed in today's economy.

Introducing LIDC EDA CARES Act Revolving Loan Fund to alleviate sudden and severe economic dislocation caused by the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, to provide permanent resources to support economic resiliency, and to further the long-term economic adjustment objectives of the Long Island region.

- All for-profit businesses based in Nassau County and Suffolk County are encouraged to apply. This revolving loan fund is for Long Island-based businesses only.
- $50,000 $500,000 business loans for Long Island's businesses that were affected by COVID-19.
- 90-day deferment for first payment.
- Simple rate at 1% first year, 2% second year, 3% third year, then after 5% for the remaining life of loan, 5 10 years term.
- Working capital funding that also can be utilized for COVID- 19 preparedness, prevention, workplace safety, PPP, and economic recovery hiring back furloughed or laid-off workers and/or new hires.
- NYS Certified Women-Owned & NYS Certified Minority-Owned businesses are encouraged to apply.
- A sliding scale application fee and 1% amount of loan commitment fee are both due at commitment.
- No restrictions if your business secured funding from PPP, EIDL or NY Forward Loan Program.

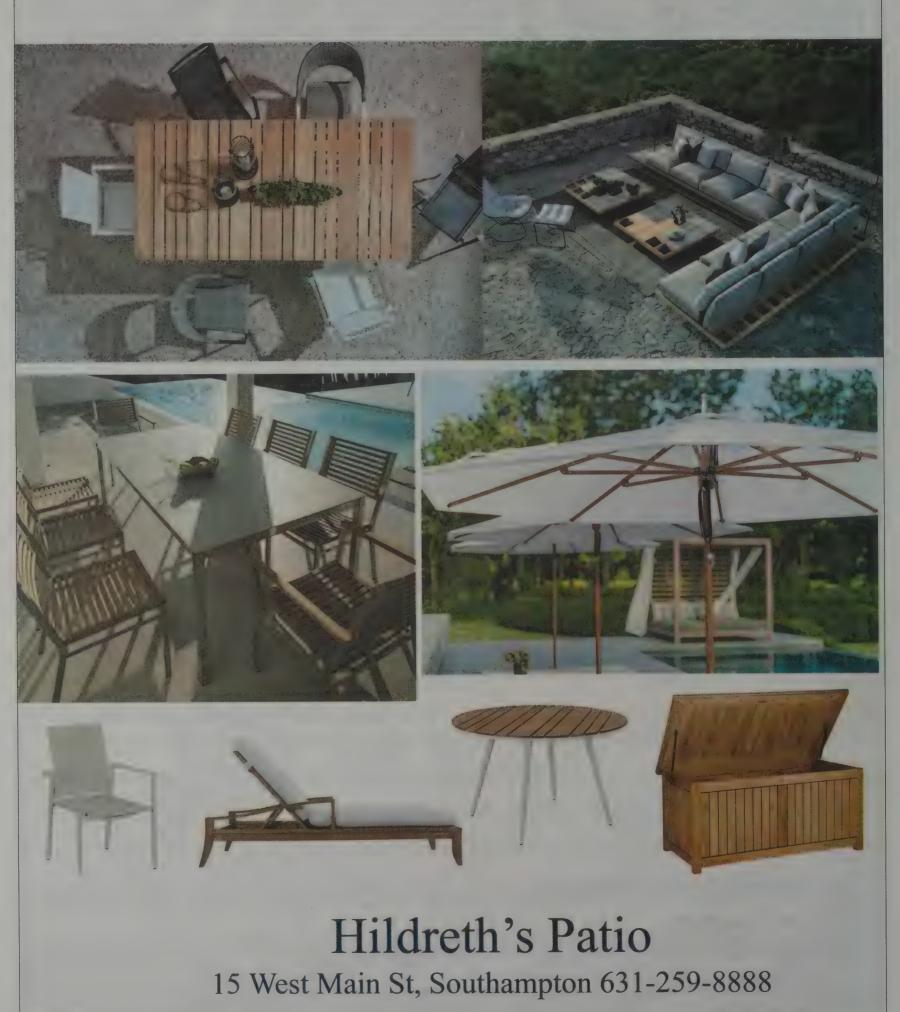

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!
